The path of God is straight and His ways are clear. But sometimes the path before us is long and winding, and we may find ourselves wandering in wilderness, unsure of our next step. One of the ways we navigate this path is through faith—trusting in God's leading and guidance. The child who trusted God's leading through the wilderness experience of the Israelites is an example of this kind of faith-filled following. In the book of Numbers, we read about the Israelites traveling through the desert, wandering from place to place without a clear path marked out for them. They faced many challenges and obstacles along the way, but through faith, they were able to overcome them and continue on their journey. This faith allowed them to trust in God's leading and guidance, even when the way was unclear and uncertain. We too can follow in their footsteps, trusting in God's wisdom and love to guide us on the path of life. Whether we are facing dark and uncertain times or walking in submission to the Master's will, faith can help us navigate the path of life and find our way home to the Promised Land. So, let us walk in faith, trusting in God's divine providence and unwavering character. For He is good, and we can be sure that He will lead us to the promised rest in Him. In faith, we follow the path of God, confident that He will guide us to the ultimate destination: eternal life in His presence.

Worship the Newborn King

Why is Christmas so special to believers? On Christmas day, we commemorate a one-of-a-kind, historical event when God entered the world as a tiny baby. Our God is transcendent and cannot be confined by place or time, yet He was born at one time and in one place. There was an actual “silent night” in a little town named Bethlehem. There were actual cattle and sheep in a real stable. There was an actual angel chorale proclaiming to astonished shepherds! And, yes, there was an actual “new and glorious morn” when, for the first time ever, the world had a real reason for hope and joy. In old classics and new songs, we remember that actual day as we Worship the Newborn King together!
