

From Heaven's Holy Throne

Dustin Battles

James Koerts

1. He stepped from heav - en's ho - ly throne to take a 2. Christ lived a hum - ble, blame - less life, yet men in
3. When Je - sus died, a dark - ness fell, as if cre - 4. When Christ a - rose just as He said, He crushed our 5. No more a serv - ant, now a King— He rules now bod - y like our own. With love so great, in man - ner ha - tred caused Him strife. A - mong the thieves they nailed Him a - tion could not tell if it would ev - er once more sin and Sa - tan's head. The light of Je - sus' emp - ty o - ver ev - 'ry - thing. Robed in His gar - ments free from mEEK, for sin - ners Je - sus came to seek.

high, though we de - served that death to die. On bend - ed shine the glo - ries of the King di - vine. grave proves Christ our Sav - ior came to save! stains, we wor - ship— Him Who ev - er reigns.

knee we bow to You— Re - deem - er, Sav - ior, Lord and King! Now grant to us, Lord Je - sus Christ, thank - ful lives and hum - bled hearts.