

My Confession

Joe Henson, III

Matt Taylor

1. In the qui - et of this mo - ment, I con - fess to You, O Lord,
2. In this sea - son of re - pent - ance, I con - fess to You, my God,

The first system of music is in 4/4 time, key of D major. It features a treble and bass staff with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "1. In the quiet of this moment, I confess to You, O Lord, 2. In this season of repentance, I confess to You, my God," that this frail, un - wor - thy serv - ant has re - belled a - gainst Your Word.

that my na - ture is to cov - er ev - 'ry ac - tion that is flawed.

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "that this frail, unworthy servant has rebelled against Your Word. that my nature is to cover every action that is flawed."

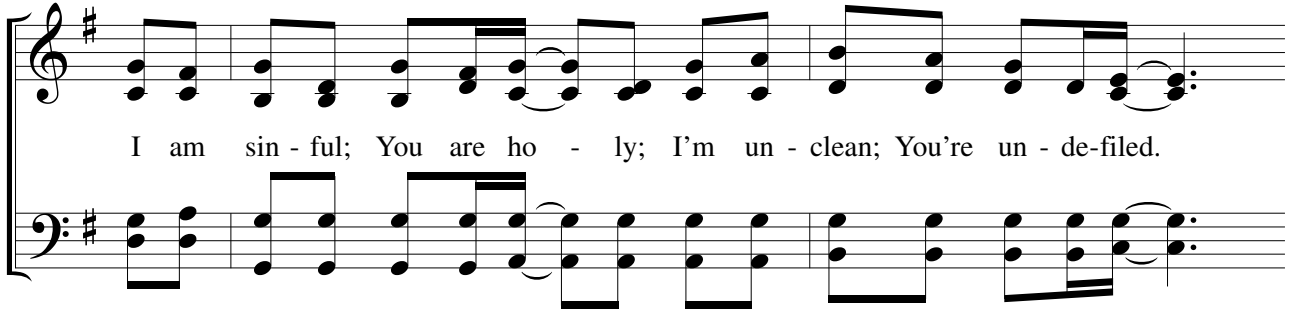

You are ho - ly be - yond meas - ure without fault of an - y kind;
You de - light in true con - tri - tion, not in pi - ous acts of praise,

The third system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "You are holy beyond measure without fault of any kind; You delight in true contrition, not in pious acts of praise,"

I am dust, cor - rupt by na - ture - flawed in bod - y, word, and mind.
and You heal my bro - ken spir - it when I own my e - vil ways.

The fourth system of music concludes the piece. It features a change in time signature from 4/4 to 2/4 and then back to 4/4. The lyrics are: "I am dust, corrupt by nature-flawed in body, word, and mind. and You heal my broken spirit when I own my evil ways."

My Confession - hymn - 2

I am sin - ful; You are ho - ly; I'm un - clean; You're un - de - filed.

Like a Fa - ther, please have pit - y on Your fee - ble, fal - t'ring child.

Were it not for lov - ing - kind - ness I would soon be swept a - way, but, in Christ, Your ten - der mer - cy grants for - give - ness when I pray!
