

The Tie That Binds

John Fawcett, alt.,
Faye López

Lowell Mason,
Faye López

1. Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Chris - tian
2. Be - fore our Fa - ther's throne bring our ear - nest
3. When we one day will part, in sad - ness, grief, or love; the fel - low - ship of kin - dred minds is prayers; our fears and hopes, our hearts are one, our pain, in tri - umph we are filled with hope, our for like to that a - bove. Blest be the tie that com - forts and our cares.

we shall meet a - gain!

binds, we join in heart and hand, blest be the tie that binds; in Christ to - geth - er we will stand.